scribe unto those seeking wisdom, knowledge, and understanding:

All honor and glory belongs to the Heavenly Father through the Mediator, Messiah, and King of Israel Jesus Christ. Praise ye the most High and glorify him for his greatness. Bless him with your lips for all the benefits that he has bestowed upon us with this truth. We are happy and excited to start a new issue and possibly book 2; around the season that we started the site eight years ago (11/10/2003). Not that the truth or the wisdom of the most High is that young since the scriptures say "Wisdom hath been created before all things, and the understanding of prudence from everlasting." Apocrypha Ecclesiasticus 1:4. More importantly we should understand that all wisdom, knowledge, understanding comes from the most High who created it. Apocrypha Ecclesiasticus 1:1 "All wisdom cometh from the Lord, and is with him for ever." This is truly a very important thing to know since a lot of our people look in the wrong places which the most High told them not to deal with. Also some of our people find interest in certain topics and skip over things that are suppose to be basic.

Like how many times brothers would hear a brother teaching about the last days, or the illuminati over hearing about the commandments of the Father. Funny thing is that to gain wisdom, knowledge, understanding of the scriptures your interest must first be in the commandments. To understand the hard saying, parables, and prophecies you must first be filled with wisdom. How can you receive wisdom? Apocrypha Ecclesiasticus 1:26 "If thou desire wisdom, keep the commandments, and the Lord shall give her unto thee." Hopefully this new edition of the Silver Trumpets Newsletters/Good News will be instrumental for you to understand where you should put your focus and beware of mishaps that happen to those that are seeking in the wrong locations (such as other books besides the scriptures, including those that claim to be from it). Shalam!

The beginning of a new month according to the Heavenly Father is marked by the phase called the new moon. The New Moon is a phase in which the moon is not visible. It is a holy day to observe by coming together in worship of the most High by studying the scriptures, prayer, and praise with righteous feasting with rejoicing. This day is not to be treated as a regular day therefore we are forbidden to do any of our own labor and works. The word Convocation means to gather ourselves together as an assembly for the praise of the most High. Leviticus 23:2 "Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, Concerning the feasts of the LORD, which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, even these are my feasts." Through the means of this newsletter we invite those who are mindful to keep the laws and holy feasts to fellowship with joy alongside your brothers and sisters.

Above in the ancient Hebrew (as it was written by the hand of God in the Tablets given to Moses) is written the commandment in Exodus 20:8 "REMEMBER the Sabbath day, to keep it holy." Today the meaning of this commandment is forgotten also replaced by the traditions and teachings of men. Please read, Daniel 7:25-27 and Mark 7:6-9. It's forgotten because our people (the so called Blacks, Hispanics, and Native Americans) have been enslaved, deceived, and can't remember their heritage as the children of Israel. Exodus 31:12 "And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, Verse 13: "Speak thou also unto the children of Israel, saying, Verily my Sabbaths ye shall keep: for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations: that ye may know that I am the LORD that doth sanctify you." The Sabbath was given to us as a sign that we are God's chosen people that are sanctified (made holy) by Him for all generations. Unfortunately our people are lost and do not remember their God, who they are, nor the commandments. See, Psalms 83:3-4, Isaiah 1:3, and Jeremiah 2:32.

As a result many will suffer the punishment (judgment) that is written in the Bible for breaking the Sabbaths. Exodus 31:14 "Ye shall keep the Sabbath therefore; for it is holy unto you: every one that defileth it shall surely be put to death: for whosoever doeth ANY WORK therein, THAT SOUL SHALL BE CUT OFF from among his people." To defile the Sabbath means to no longer consider it holy. The Sabbath is a day of rest, no work of any kind (chores/labor) is permitted on this holy day. Therefore to defile it means to do your own pleasure by working on this day. Please read, Isaiah 58:13-14 and Exodus 20:8-11. Recall how Christ said what profit is it to gain the whole world but lose your soul (Mark 8:34-37). The Sabbath day was made for man as a blessing, yet the warning is clear, that we will be JUDGED according to God's word if we choose to break his commandment. See, Revelations 20:11-15.

The Sabbath is on the seventh day of the week; from evening to evening; Leviticus 23:32 "...from even unto even, shall ye celebrate your Sabbath." Therefore the Sabbath is from Friday evening to Saturday evening. To determine when evening starts the Bible teaches us that it's when the sun is down and it is dark. See, Proverbs 7:9, Genesis 15:17, Nehemiah 13:19, and Genesis 1:1-5. There are six days in the week as shown above that we could work and do all our other chores. Exodus 31:15 "Six days may work be done; but IN THE SEVENTH IS THE SABBATH OF REST, holy to the LORD: whosoever doeth any work in the Sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death." Avoid the SECOND DEATH by not doing ANY WORK on the Sabbath day. That includes our own personal chores, such as cooking or heating up food; Exodus 35:3 "Ye shall kindle no fire throughout your habitations upon the Sabbath day." All cooked meals must be prepared before the sun goes down on Friday. Seeing as you can not cook on the Sabbath you can make cold cut sandwiches, example: turkey, beef, or salads, cereals, etc. or any food that doesn't require cooking or heating, to eat until Saturday evening. Exodus 16:23 "And he said unto them, This is that which the Lord hath said, Tomorrow is the rest of the holy Sabbath unto the Lord: bake that which ye will bake today, and seethe [boil] that ye will seethe; and that which remaineth overlay up for you to be kept until the morning." Also buying and selling on the Sabbath is not permitted. Nehemiah 10:31 "And if the people of the land bring ware [goods] or any victuals [foods or provisions] on the Sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy it of them on the Sabbath, or on the holy day..." Consider that it is a day of rest so anything laborious such as cleaning, carrying heavy things, exercise, etc. Is not permitted. Jeremiah 17:21 "Thus saith the LORD; Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem;" Verse 22: "Neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath day, neither do ye any work, but hallow ye the sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers."

Exodus 31:16 "Wherefore the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their GENERATIONS, for a PERPETUAL COVENANT." Verse 17: "It is a sign between me and the children of Israel FOR EVER; for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed." As it states in the word of God, the Sabbath has not changed or been removed. Instead we are told that we must keep the Sabbath forever. God even tells us that we will keep it in the kingdom of heaven. See, Isaiah 66:22-24. When studying the scriptures (Luke 4:16, Acts 17:2, and Acts 18:4), Jesus Christ and his apostles always kept the Sabbath day holy and never did he ordain Sunday (the first day of the week) as the Lord's Day. In fact he reinforced that the commandment had to be kept. See, Matthews 5:17 and Romans 3:31. Should we listen to men or God who wrote it with his own finger? Acts 5:29 "Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men." Exodus 31:18 "And he gave unto Moses, when he had made an end of communing with him upon mount Sinai, two tables of testimony, tables of stone, written with the finger of God." Many attempt to deceive some by using difficult scriptures in the letters of Paul be forewarned by the Bible. Read, 2nd Peters 3:15-18. Shalam (Peace)!

The phrase the “last days” is found within the Bible including the Apocrypha only eleven times. However we must understand that there are countless synonyms (words meaning the same) for this phrase. It’s a topic that many preachers attempt to speak on since it attracts people to their message. Proof for this is not hard to discover. How many of you heard that the “end of the world” or “judgment day” was on May 21, 2011? I’m pretty sure at some point you did hear about it and you were not alone.

1. Genesis 49:1
2. Isaiah 2:2
3. Micah 4:1
4. 2nd Esdras 10:59
5. 2nd Esdras 12:23
6. 2nd Esdras 13:20
7. Acts 2:17
8. 2nd Timothy 3:1
9. Hebrews 1:2
10. James 5:3
11. 2nd Peters 3:3

Many people did, in so much that some had “end of the world” parties which were sinful (breaking the Sabbath, reveling, whoredom, etc...). While there were others that feared it might be true even though the scriptures say, Mark 13:32 “But of that DAY and that HOUR KNOWETH NO MAN, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.” Meaning that the exact day of the month, season, year, and the hour cannot be figured out by any mathematical calculations since there is no scripture giving us that information. Only (the Father) God knows the exact time; not even (the Son) Jesus Christ knows (this shows God and Jesus Christ are not the same individual) neither any angels know the time. Apocrypha Ecclesiasticus 3:25 “Without eyes thou shalt want light: profess not the knowledge therefore that thou hast not.” Recently the false prophet Harold Camping again looked like a fool after saying he miscalculated and that the date was actually October 21st. EPIC FAIL!

The False Prophet: Harold Camping

Does that mean that there is NO way to figure out whether we are in the last days or not? The scriptures actually tell us very plainly when the last days are. Unfortunately due to MANY false prophets people will mock those that believe Biblical prophecy about the last days. 2nd Peters 3:3 “Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts,” Those that mock or ridicule yet living in sin by following their own lusts (evil desires) are “scoffers”. These ignore the warning of the scriptures that teach, many liars or self professed prophets would come. See, Matthews 24:11. Not only do they ignore such important information but they dismiss the signs all around them that prove the Bible to be true. Romans 3:3 “For what if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the faith of God [prophecies/word] without effect?” Those that choose to continue in sin lacking faith in what the Heavenly Father said are not harming him but themselves. Job 35:6 “If thou sinnest, what doest thou against him? or if thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto him?” The prophecies will still come to pass and how will you respond for your sins when you are judged? Romans 3:4 “God forbid [that someone’s lack of faith make his word of none effect]: yea, let God [his word] be true, but every man a liar; AS IT IS WRITTEN, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.”

Mark 13:31 “Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.” As you can see the “liar” is not the written word of God but every man that speak against it and it will continue being that way until the end. Since the word of the most High is true there are various ways we could tell whether we are in the last days. The obvious way of finding out the times (whether you are in the last days) is by the signs. In fact, the most High gave the children of Israel a clear sign that would actually be in the sky for them to see. Joel 2:31 “The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come.” The great and terrible day of the Lord come is the second coming of Christ. Why is it terrible? Because when Christ returns he is coming back for war and to destroy the wicked. Isaiah 66:15 “For, behold, the LORD will come with fire, and with his chariots [the angels with their flying vehicles] like a whirlwind [they go in a circular motion], to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire.” Verse 16: “For by fire and by his sword will the LORD plead with all flesh: and the slain [those killed] of the LORD SHALL BE MANY.”

Two signs were given in the prophecy of Joel that would happen before the terrible day of the Lord. One was that the sun would be turned into darkness to show the people of Israel that they are in the last days. This was fulfilled at the crucifixion of Christ; Luke 23:44 “And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour.” Verse 45: “And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst.” It is important to note how great of a sign this was that even a pagan Roman soldier was convinced that the man they crucified was the Son of God. Matthews 27:45: “Now from the sixth hour [noon or as we say today 12pm] there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour [until 3pm].” Verse 50: “Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost [died and his spirit left his body].” Verse 51: “And, behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain [ripped in two pieces] from the top to the bottom [like it was mentioned in the book of Luke; a sign of the priesthood of Christ]; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent;” Verse 54: “Now when the centurion [Roman soldier], and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.” If that sign took place at that the crucifixion of Christ then that means the last days had already begun. That was approximately over 2000 years ago!

Within the same prophecy the second sign is one that we should be familiar with. For the past five newsletters we have been using a picture that was taken on December 20, 2010 of what was called by many news stations as the “blood moon” a lunar eclipse. It also happened recently (on June 15, 2011) for those of the Middle East to see. Remember that in the creation, we were told that the sun, moon, and stars are to be used to calculate time. Not for astrology, zodiac signs, or any kind of witchcraft and worship. Genesis 1:14 “And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years:” Those two signs reveal to us that we have been indeed in the last days. If you didn’t notice the last days began in the first coming of Christ based on what we read in Joel chapter 2. This is confirmed by Peter who told us that we will have scoffers in the last days since he experienced the mocking in his days which was the beginning of the last days.

In the feast of Pentecost also known as the Feast of First Fruits the people that were gathered together in Jerusalem to keep this holy day, they witnessed a miracle. The disciples were given the Holy Spirit and were able to speak all kinds of different languages. This should have caused the people to see that they were in need to hear the truth since the last days began. But instead they mocked/scoffed. Acts 2:12 “And they were all amazed [some were amazed at the miracle, the disciples are able to speak all kinds of languages that they didn’t know], and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?” Verse 13: “Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine.” Verse 14: “But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judaea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:” Verse 15: “For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day [in the morning, 9am].” Verse 16: “But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel;”

Here Peter is going to reveal a mystery to us, since a lot of our people are unaware that the last days began with the preaching of Christ. The scoffers accused the disciples of being drunk but what was happening was fulfillment of the prophecy in Joel chapter 2 (which we read earlier). Here we’re going to read them side by side and get the understanding according to the Spirit.

Acts 2:17 “And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:” Verse 18: “And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy:”

Joel 2:28 “And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit [Holy Spirit of God] upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:” Verse 29: “And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.”

They both say the same thing word for word except notice that Peter said “in the last days” while the scripture in Joel doesn’t say that. Why would he say such a thing? Well because when you read on in Joel it basically tells you that it is the last days or as we read earlier in Joel; “before the great and the terrible day of the LORD”. What Peter was trying to show the Israelites of his time is that they were given the Holy Spirit like it was prophesied (promised) in Joel. That as servants of the most High they might be able to reveal the way of salvation to Israel before the destruction.

Joel 2:30 “And I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.” Verse 31: “The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come.”

Acts 2:19 “And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:” Verse 20: “The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:”

And I will shew wonders in heaven above is referring to the signs that we identified earlier; the sun being darkened and the moon turning into blood. What are the signs that will be on the earth? “Blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke”; meaning war! Before the second coming, various wars are mentioned that must take place. This was one of the signs Christ told us that will happen in the end of the world. Matthew 24:3 “And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?” The prophets and disciples had pretty much the same questions that we ask ourselves. This is why if we read the scriptures we would receive answers. Just like us they wanted to know, how they can tell if they are in the last days or when is the second coming. Although Christ didn’t know the actual date he knew that certain events (signs) must happen before he could return. This is how we could tell how close we are to the second coming of Christ.

Matthew 24:6 “And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.” As it was explained in the prophecy of Joel there would be wars before the great battle in Armageddon. For those during the time period that Christ was crucified they were to understand that the Romans will come and invade the land. Read, Daniel 9:26-27. That war was going to cause them to lose the temple and they will be carried away as slaves. Luke 21:20 “And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with [Roman] armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.” Just like it was prophesied in the book of Daniel the desolation was near.

Luke 21:21 “Then let them which are in Judaea flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto.” Verse 22: “For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.” That is a key thing to understand, Christ will not return until every prophecy that is written is fulfilled. There are many things that were said must happen before he could return and rule in his kingdom.

Luke 21:23 “But woe [grief because of the affliction] unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.” Verse 24: “And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.” This desolation happened during 70 A.D. with the Roman General Titus Vespasian and there was “blood”, “fire”, and “and vapour of smoke”. But that would not be the only time that these things would be present. Although his disciples understood that they were in the last days they also understood from Christ that this was just the beginning. Matthews 24:7 “For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against king- dom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.” Verse 8: “All these are the beginning of sorrows.”

Now the scoffer will have a problem understanding that the last days began when Christ taught the people repentance but evidence of this is throughout the scriptures. Matthews 4:17 “From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.” When he taught to repent, he also said that the end (kingdom of heaven) is at hand. 1st Peters 4:7 “But the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer.”

Remember above how we read that Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled? This means that after 70 A.D. the children of Israel that fled and went into slavery (captivity) throughout the world never returned to their land. Instead the people that live in Jerusalem today are Gentiles and not Jews (Israel). Isaiah 2:1 “The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah (Jews) and Jerusalem.” Verse 2: “And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the LORD’S house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it.” Understanding that we are in the last days already is of great value. To know of the last days the so called Old Testament is to be read to understand what is going to take place in the last days especially because it regards to your own salvation.

The prophet Isaiah saw what was going to come in the last days in the land of Jerusalem. There the LORD’S house which is the temple was going to be exalted as the holy city where the Jews that would be in all nations shall flow unto it. Remember the temple was destroyed in 70 A.D. and it doesn’t exist unto this day. Acts 2:5 “And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.” This proves that all the nations that were going to travel to Jerusalem were the Jews, but this is not talking about the present day Jewish/Israeli since they are Gentiles. It was referring to those people Peter and the disciples taught during the feast of Pentecost. It continues to say, Isaiah 2:3 “And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.” This prophecy was teaching us about the doctrine of Christ; to learn repentance you must learn the laws. Repentance is asking forgiveness for the sins you committed (the laws you broke) and no longer living in sin. In Churchianity they teach that Christ came to remove the laws or as they like to misquote “nail it to the cross”. Also that Israel is no more that they have been cast away by God. But what the scripture said will be taught by Christ, his disciples, and those that come after? That is to return to the laws and to acknowledge that God is of Jacob (Israel). This is clear proof that the last days began during the time period that Christ began to teach repentance. Since the temple is destroyed, the people in the land are Gentiles and not from Judah, and lastly the laws are no longer taught.

Hebrews 1:1 “God, who at sundry [various] times and in divers [several different] manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,” Verse 2: “Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds;” This scripture is undeniably telling us that the last days had already begun when Christ had first come to teach repentance unto Israel! This is very important to know because the understanding of many scriptures would be affected. Such as the understanding of Genesis 49th chapter which many misuse today to declare they belong to a certain tribe based on the land they were born. Such heretical teaching came from men that are no different than Harold Camping since they predicted that Christ was to return in the year 2000. Of course these men did not repent but continued to increase in their lying.

2nd Peters 2:1 “But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily [privately] shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.”

Therefore when reading about the last days we must consider that it began long ago with the ministry and death of Christ. Many scriptures that speak of the last days never begin at the end but teaches us of the events that will lead to the end of times (last days). For example, the king of Babylon during Daniel’s time period received a dream from the most High. Which Daniel said, “But there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these;” Daniel 2:28. Those two words “latter days” mean the exact same thing as “last days”. Yet the vision the prophet Daniel explained, “As for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass HEREAFTER: and he that revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass.” Daniel 2:29. The pattern that our forefathers show us is that when a prophecy that deals with the last days is spoken by that prophet to the second coming of Christ; thus why it is important not to be hasty and claim a prophecy is speaking of this time when the rest of the scriptures explain that it was already fulfilled. In the near future we will show examples of teachings today that are taught openly by many so called Israelite teachers that are simply lies.

Now that we know the last days began when Christ first preached repentance how much more serious should we be taking the scriptures and examining ourselves. Even the scholars of this world knew that the beginning of the end days was with Christ and marked it as Anno Domini (A.D.). Anno Domini means the Year of the Lord. Then they labeled the Dark Ages as the Middle Ages. What is after the middle? The end. With that information, we know that the resurrection of Rome in the Renaissance time period got us even closer to the end. By the way Renaissance means rebirth. Romans 13:11 “And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.”

1st Peters 4:17 “For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?” Verse 18: “And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?” Verse 19: “Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator.” Shalam!

Flyer Update (<http://www.12tribes.net/scrolls/flyer-update>)

We have added a plugin to the site where you could preview the flyers before you print them right on the page. The flyers to me is one of the most important parts of the website because when you first come into the truth it is difficult to explain what you might have read or learned. So the best way to pass on the knowledge you have gain to family, friends, or just about anyone is by giving them a flyer. In page four you have been introduced to our new Sabbath flyer which is part of a new set of flyers we are trying to launch to teach of each of the Ten Commandments. Since it is unfortunate to say but some of our brothers and sisters that say are Israelites are breaking this very moment. All the flyers are located at the following permalink: <http://www.riseisrael.com/main/contents/flyers/> There you could find flyers for the upcoming wicked holidays amongst other things just make sure to scroll down in the middle section. We had a X-mess but it needs updating that's why is not on the site.
